Advantages and limitations

ADVANTAGES	Member States	EC/EEA
Harmonised reporting	X	X
Enhance sharing of information	X	X
Possibility connection with existing information	X	X
Fast feedback to MS from submitted information	X	X
Connection with IA requirement listed in section 2.6	X	X
Download functionality	X
Equal treatment among Member States	X	X
Avoid development of complex QA/QC procedures and guidelines	X	X
Avoid reporting errors and risk of re-submissions	X	X

CHALLENGES	Member States	EC/EEA
First year of reporting. More information to be reported	X
Development of a new tool		X

Give "values" to submitted informations

WEB-FORM Expected Content

- Field and information requested from section 2.6 of the IA
- Only mandatory content would be required to be reported
- Non-mandatory reporting would be possible but not required
- Web-form structure will be as much as possible the same as the MMR one
- Possibility to report information from section 2.8 would be provided
 - Carry over of information from section 2.6
- Working on the possibility to download submitted information in the format of the table as indicated into the IA

Next Steps

- EEA and ETC/ACM will develop a first draft of the tool by summer
- Draft tool will be tested and shared with MS as soon as stable to get additional feedback
- Tool would be finalised by next Expert Group Meeting
